Races

- There are Championship, A Grade and non-Championship B Grade races.
- Only registered financial members of Wellington Centre clubs can be placed in the championships, but visiting walkers may enter the A Grade races.
- Any member of any club or an individual walker may enter as a B Grade competitor and will be allowed to finish.
- The championship A grade races will be fully judged, and any disqualified walker will be allowed to finish and moved to B-grade walker results. There is no penalty zone operating.
- The championship races will be as follows. Senior men and women, Masters men and women 35+ and Under 20 men and woman are all 10 km. Men and women under 18 are 5 km.
- Non-championship B Grade walkers can elect to enter in the 10km or 5km races and will be judged for loss of contact and creeping.
- There will be 2km non-championship race for juniors.
- Please bring your own race numbers if you have them. We will have extra bibs and safety pins available at Registration.
- The course is not certified by Athletics New Zealand and national records will not be recognised.
